Progress for Progress!

Welcome to the NEW LOOK of Progress! Our aim has always been to provide residents with relevant news, information and editorial, as well as bringing you pictures of some of the many events and activities that happens in and around our Town.

Our Editorial Board has recently been brain-storming ideas to refresh and modernise our award-winning publication, while ensuring that it remains cost-effective.

After considerable research and debate, we are delighted to introduce you to a new magazine-style publication. Continuing to highlight all the news, views and information that you have told us that you enjoy, Progress will still be delivered direct to your home COMPLETELY FREE OF CHARGE! We will also be adding an EXTENDED version online! So if you want to read about any particular story in greater depth, from mid-Autumn you will be able to access eProgress via online subscription.

More details to follow - watch this space!

Pouring out memories at Mayor's Tea Party

A tea party for Littlehampton's D-Day veterans will be hosted by the Mayor.

Attending the D-Day 75 Commemorations in Portsmouth with his D-day veteran Dad, Cllr. Mike Northeast realised how important it was to preserve first-hand memories of this historical event.

"Young men became heroes and brought about the end of the Second World War. Many never speak of their experiences, but when they meet with other veterans the memories come flooding out," said Mike.

With precious little time to record veteran's accounts, Mike approached the Mayor, suggesting a special tea party. As well as veterans who were part of the landings, Mike wanted to invite those who remember what was happening in the Town at the time.

Immediately supporting the idea, the Mayor Cllr. Tracey Baker told Progress:

"We want to invite anyone with memories of D-day to tea in the Mayor's Parlour. A date is to be confirmed, but we are aiming for some time in the run-up to Stan Northeast attending D-Day 75 Commemorations in Portsmouth on June 5.

Remembrance Day later this year. As well as those who bravely fought, we want to hear from those on the home front – the Home Guard, Fire Brigade, hospital workers, Beach Patrollers – anyone who remembers D-Day and has a story to tell."

Mike added: "It is important to understand how the Second World War affected the lives of Littlehampton people and that we preserve these stories."

Big news for your town

Fitzalan Road Extension/ Lymminster Bypass

Promising to bring much needed relief to the traffic congestion around the north of the Town, this scheme is being delivered in three phases: north (expected start late Spring 2020) and south of the A259 and from the new development (Hampton Park) to north of Lymminster, the latter two sections due to commence in the Autumn.

The developers Persimmon Homes Thames Valley have launched a website to relay important information to residents of Littlehampton, relating to the construction of the Southern Lymminster By-Pass and Fitzalan Link Road check it here lyminsterbypass.info/ littlehampton-tc.gov.uk/hamptonpark

A welcome for years to come

Ensuring that visitors know that they are welcome to our town, LTC has installed new 'welcome!' signs at the Town's boundaries.

Skate Park is GO!

Progress is delighted to report that planning permission has been granted for the upgrade to Littlehampton Skate Park on Sea Road, jointly funded by Littlehampton Town Council and Arun District Council with £50,000 grant funding from Sport England.

The new concrete skate park will be constructed by Maverick Industries Ltd, a company that specialises in the design of spray concrete skate parks.

Floodlighting will be installed so that the skate park can be lit until 9pm during the winter months, and a new parkour training facility will also be constructed at the site.

Let's Hear It For The Heritage Group!

Recording valuable information about the town's exciting historic buildings, volunteers of the Littlehampton Heritage Group have spent the last fifteen months working in partnership with LTC and with the support of Arun District Council's Conservation Officer.

Funded by a grant from the Heritage Lottery Fund, perhaps the most important aspect of the group's work has been raising the profile of heritage within the town. Volunteers have achieved this by recording information about the physical features and the rich history of many buildings around Littlehampton.

An example of these lesser known buildings is NO 41 Beach Road, which is located on the corner of Beach Road and Maltravers Road. Built around 1893 as the new offices of the Littlehampton Urban District Council (the predecessor to both Arun District, and Littlehampton Town Councils), this initial purpose can be noted in some of the building's more ornate features including the clock and the stone window lintels and surrounds.

41 Beach Road

After the Urban District Council moved to new offices at the Manor House, Church Street, in 1933, these offices were known as the 'Old Council Offices.' Frequently used by the community, this was depicted in a 1937 edition of Littlehampton Gazette via an advertisement for a meeting of the Littlehampton Chamber of Commerce.

Will You Help Keep Up The Good Work?

The funding for the project concludes in January 2020, but there are still many buildings left to discover! The Heritage Group is keen to recruit volunteers to continue the wonderful work beyond January. If you are interested in helping, even if just by sharing something you know or suggesting a building you would like to see researched, please get in touch.

£19,580 Awarded to Local Groups

Creative Heart, opening October 2019 at the site of the old Tamarisk Centre, will be a love-filled, not-for-profit, vibrant community hub and arts cafe. More details 🏠 www.creativeheart.org.uk

Supporting the Town's charities and not-for-profit groups, LTC's Grant Aid has helped over forty organisations. Sharing a whopping £19,580 between them, this year's beneficiaries included applications from several new groups.

All looking to deliver an ambitious range of initiatives, successful applicants were required to demonstrate an offering to the community of cultural enrichment, social or sporting activities or advice and support.

All applications were considered on the basis of merit.

Newer groups recognised this year include:

- Creative Heart Littlehampton CIC who are reopening the Tamarisk Centre as a community hub (£2,500 was awarded towards the reopening of the centre to provide a disability changing bed)
- Littlehampton Armed Forces Veterans Club (granted £500 towards their events supporting local veterans and serving members of the Armed Forces)
- The Treasure Basket Association (£300 awarded for a local play therapy service to support children who have experienced trauma and emotional difficulties)
