

Littlehampton Town Council

Member's Register of Interests (Own Code of Conduct)

Littlehampton Town Council has adopted a different Code of Conduct to Arun District Council and other towns and parishes within the district of Arun. Under the Localism Act 2011 it is Arun District Council's Monitoring Officer's responsibility as relevant authority itself, and parent authority to town and parish councils within the district of Arun, to decide what should be published from the registers of interests on the District, town and parish council websites. Listed below, in line with the other town and parish councils within the district of Arun, and the District Council, are the details of registerable pecuniary interests for individual members of Littlehampton Town Council. If you wish to view the other interests that Littlehampton Town Council has made registerable, please contact the Town Council itself.
